Aria

Pastorale

Moderato

NB. This Aria was danced with great approbation in the Opera of the Free Knights, or the V. S. Edict of Charlemagne.

A handwritten musical score on six systems of grand staves (treble and bass clef). The music is written in a key with two sharps (F# and C#) and a common time signature (C). The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings. The first system shows a melodic line in the treble and a bass line in the bass. The second system features a more complex melodic line in the treble with many sixteenth notes. The third system continues the melodic development. The fourth system shows a more active bass line. The fifth system features a melodic line in the treble with many sixteenth notes. The sixth system concludes the piece with a final cadence in the treble and a sustained bass line.

Pas Seul

3

Playfully

The musical score is written for piano in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. It consists of six systems of grand staves. The first system is marked 'Playfully'. The second and third systems have an '8va' marking above the treble clef. The third system also has a 'loco' marking at the end. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The piece concludes with a final cadence in the sixth system.

NB. This Pas Seul was danced with great applause by Miss B. Dennett, in Paul & Virginia.
